Dear Esteemed Guests, Exhibitors, and Buyers,

Welcome to the 72nd edition of the Bangkok Gems & Jewelry Fair, an unparalleled celebration of brilliance, creativity, and global connection in the heart of Asia.

Organized by the Department of International Trade Promotion (DITP) and co-organized by The Gem and Jewelry Institute of Thailand (Public Organization) or GIT, this landmark event continues to affirm its position as one of the most prestigious gatherings in the international gems and jewelry calendar. For over forty years, Bangkok Gems has not only reflected the evolving excellence of the industry but has also shaped its future.

This edition, the fair has further its success with over 1,100 exhibitors and 2,600 booths occupying more than 47,000 square meters at the state-of-the-art Queen Sirikit National Convention Center (QSNCC). The venue becomes a glittering stage where extraordinary craftsmanship, rare materials, and pioneering design take center stage.

Across five dynamic days, buyers and visitors from all continents will witness a world of opportunity—from sourcing exquisite gems to forming strategic partnerships and experiencing cutting-edge innovation. Curated exhibitions, insightful seminars, and exclusive networking events are just a few of the moments that make this edition truly unforgettable.

Unlike virtual trade on e-commerce platforms, Bangkok Gems remains a place where professionals come to touch, feel, and connect—to engage directly with the people and products that define the industry's best.

We are honored to welcome you to this spectacular gathering. May your time at the 72nd Bangkok Gems & Jewelry Fair be filled with discovery, inspiration, and success.

From vibrant urban districts to historic capitals and artisan villages, each place offers a unique window into the artistry of gemstone enhancement and gold and silver jewelry making.

BANGKOK

EXPLORING THE CITY IN FULL COLOR

SILOM-BANG RAK: THE CITY'S JEWELRY QUARTER

In central Bangkok, Silom-Bang Rak is the city's historic jewelry district, where gold shops, gemstone dealers, and design studios sit alongside workshops producing pieces for both local and international markets. Skilled artisans here handle everything from setting and polishing to engraving, making it a vibrant hub for Thai jewelry.

GIT GEM AND JEWELRY MUSEUM

Just nearby, the GIT Gem and Jewelry Museum showcases Thailand's gemology and design heritage, with exhibits on gemstone origins, cutting, and the evolution of Thai gems and jewelry industry. Highlights include gold and silver masterpieces, rare gems, and contemporary designs.

CHIANG MAI

TRACE THE SILVER LINING IN THE CAPITAL OF SILVERSMITHING

In the cultural heart of Northern Thailand, Chiang Mai shines as the capital of ethnic silversmithing. For centuries, hill tribes such as the Karen, Hmong, and Lahu have transformed raw silver into intricate jewelry and ceremonial ornaments, each piece carrying spiritual meaning and ancestral stories. Today, their artistry endures, blending traditional techniques with contemporary design, making Chiang Mai not only a hub of heritage but also a living showcase of the region's diverse cultural identity through silver.

SILVERSMITHING IN THE LANNA CAPITAL

Chiang Mai, known for its silversmithing since the Lanna Kingdom, remains a hub of creativity and culture. Wua Lai Road is its famed silversmith quarter, while artisans citywide blend traditional repoussé, hand-piercing, and stamping with modern techniques. Keeping the craft thriving alongside the city's rich food, leisure, and weekend scene.

THE SILVER TEMPLE

At Wat Srisuphan, or the Silver Temple, every detail showcases generations of Lanna silversmithing. Nearby, the Wua Lai Saturday Walking Street combines silver jewelry with local crafts, food, and a relaxing evening vibe, while Wat Muen San offers another glimpse of the city's

LANNA FOLKLIFE CENTER

For deeper cultural context behind Chiang Mai's silver legacy, visit the Lanna Folklife Centre, located just across from the Three Kings Monument. This museum presents the lifestyle, beliefs, and artistic traditions of the Lanna people—featuring displays of traditional attire, silver accessories, and ceremonial objects. It's a quiet yet insightful stop that helps bring the stories behind the region's silversmithing to life.

NOVA ARTLAB

For those interested in learning by doing, Nova Artlab in Chiang Mai offers private, hands-on jewelry-making workshops where participants learn silversmithing basics. From wax carving to stone setting, and leave with a handcrafted piece tailored to their design.

AYUTTHAYA

GOLDSMITHING IN THE FORMER CAPITAL

Once the heart of the Siamese Kingdom, Ayutthaya was a center of royal goldsmithing, producing ceremonial ornaments, temple embellishments, and court jewelry. Known for delicate filigree, enamel inlay, and floral motifs, its artisans still create both traditional and modern designs today. Ayutthaya is also a popular weekend getaway. Just an hour from Bangkok, it's a peaceful yet lively escape.

CHAO SAM PHRAYA NATIONAL MUSEUM

At the heart of Ayutthaya's golden legacy, the Goldware Exhibition at the Chao Sam Phraya National Museum showcases royal regalia, ceremonial ornaments, and gold pieces unearthed from temple ruins. With delicate filigree, lotus motifs, and repoussé detailing, it offers a vivid glimpse into the elegance and precision of Thai gold craftsmanship at its peak.

SUSTAINABLE ARTS AND CRAFTS INSTITUTE

Located in Bang Sai district just outside Ayutthaya, the Sustainable Arts and Crafts Institute is a royal initiative dedicated to preserving traditional Thai craftsmanship. Visitors can watch masters at work on gold-related arts such as gold-leaf lacquerware, gold-embellished textiles, and fine ornaments, and browse handcrafted pieces that often reinterpret classical Ayutthaya motifs for modern design. It's a serene cultural stop where heritage meets sustainability.
